Introducing Dj Freaky Freddy

Singapore's biggest Dj export to the world has returned after 10 years of international performance abroad.

Dj Freaky Freddy has been touring the globe hosting radio shows, TV shows including Dj shows in partnership with MTV Global. He also has short stints acting in various popular drama serials in Canada and Korea. Freddy played an integral role as a member of sensational Korean pop group REF , rapping and producing for them .His involvement with the band propelled him to superstardom , selling millions of albums in South East Asia leaving a legacy that will always be instilled in the hearts of Koreans.

Still bearing the "Made in Singapore" tag, our homegrown talent has finally returned to us, making his debut at the nation's hottest entertainment club, The Arena @ Clarke Quay, Singapore's No 1 international live music venue where he now holds residency as Entertainment Director / International Celebrity Dj. Music lovers and party aficionados would be able to recall Freddy's inimitable performances at a few of the nation's top clubbing venues years ago. Radio 1 fans would also be glad to hear that Freddy's plans to host his own radio show are very much underway. He will be joined by Canadian International Playmate Dj Chelsea. Don't be surprise if you catch him on local sitcoms in the near future as Freddy is already in talks with local producers over a series of roles. This time, Freddy is here to stay, so grasp your hearts as he drops the beats and brings Live DJ Performances to a whole new level.
